

August 2018

President's Message

Dear Coaches!

I hope you're enjoying your summer.

Here's a quick recap of recent events. Our July 11th Summer Social was fantastic with a great turnout. Thank you Susan Ginsberg-O'Sullivan, our board, and the committee members for a wonderful evening. And, it was so lovely to meet so many new members!

Amanda Blake presented an inspiring webinar on August 1st on The Neurobiology of Somatic Coaching: Embody Your Social and Emotional Intelligence. Amanda shared with us the advances in neuroscience and practical ways that you, and your clients, can expand both social and emotional intelligence. Thanks to Sue Negrey and the Professional Development Committee for arranging this event.
